

Endowed Professorship for Music and Society

The Stella Vorarlberg Privathochschule für Musik GmbH currently has a vacancy for the above position. The successful candidate will take up the role in the winter semester 2023/24, initially as a 60% position, a fixed-term employment for the time being.

We are offering candidates the opportunity to help shape a young music college in the culturally and economically attractive Lake Constance region. This positive and internationally oriented environment offers a special atmosphere with excellent working conditions.

Your responsibilities

- founding and developing the research field Music and Society
- doing sociomusicological research in the field Music and Society
- establishing a research focus on regional and international interdependencies between music and society, focusing on the Lake Constance region
- participating in the conceptual development of the college's research activities and working groups
- acquiring external funds
- teaching in the context of the established research field, in the extent of 2 semester periods per week
- taking over of administrative responsibilities
- contributing to the overall profile of the college by applying interdisciplinary approaches

your profile

necessary qualifications

- college or university diploma and a PhD in the field of social studies, cultural studies, or the humanities with a specified focus on music
- habilitation or achievements of equal measure (e.g., relevant international research-based publications attributable to the field of sociomusicology)

- relevant teaching experience including expertise in supervising students' bachelor and master theses
- very good spoken and written skills in German and English

additional qualifications

- expertise in the field of quantitative and qualitative research methods
- experience in acquiring external funds
- a valuable network of research partnerships at your disposal
- readiness to work in a team

The involvement of academic personnel is expected, to be financed through self-acquirement of external funds.

The Stella Vorarlberg aims for equality between applicants, regardless of gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, ethnicity, religion, world view, age, or disability. As part of the Stella Vorarlberg Privathochschule für Musik's efforts to achieve a higher representation of women in academic, artistic, and general personnel, applications from women are particularly encouraged.

We are unable to reimburse any expenses by candidates for their application to Stella Vorarlberg.

Please send your application (academic CV with a list of publications, talks and lectures, self-organised events, and acquired external funds, as well as a cover letter, and a copy of qualifications) as a PDF only to the Dean's Office of the Stella Vorarlberg Privathochschule für Musik GmbH in Feldkirch, Austria, by 12 June 2023, rektorat@stella-musikhochschule.ac.at

We look forward to receiving your application.
